Vacant Residence Exemption

You can now rehabilitate a vacant residence and qualify for 10 years of exemptions on City and School taxes on the increased value.

Here's how it works:

- The property must be certified in advance as vacant for one year.
  - Check first with the Assessment Department at (315) 448-8270 to see if it qualifies.
- The value of the rehabilitation work must be at least $20,000
- File an application prior to starting work on the property
- Obtain required permits

What is the exemption provided?
Properties that qualify will receive a seven-year 100% exemption from City and School taxes on the assessment increase due to the rehabilitation, and a partial exemption for three additional years.

Example: A vacant, unoccupied hazard assessed at $15,000 is rehabilitated and the assessment is increased to $75,000.

What is considered a vacant residence for this exemption?
A property that has been vacant for at least a year, sealed or boarded up, and certified by Code Enforcement and Assessment.

When should I apply?
As soon as you verify that the property qualifies for the program and before you start any work on it.

What taxes are reduced by the exemption?
City and school taxes due to the value added by the rehabilitation of the property. County taxes are not reduced by it.

New 1 and 2 Family Residences

You can now build a new one- or two-family residence in Syracuse, and qualify for 10 years of exemptions from City and School taxes on the increased value. Additional years of exemption are available if the house is LEED-certified.

Here’s how it works:
- The residence must be newly constructed, and a one- or two-family
- You must fill out an application for the exemption by December 31st of the year in which you start construction.
- Obtain the required building permits

What is the exemption provided?
Properties that qualify will receive a seven-year 100% exemption from City and School taxes on the assessment increase due to the new construction, and a partial exemption for three additional years. If the house is LEED-certified additional years are added on.

Example:
A new residence is built on a vacant lot assessed for $10,000.
The assessment is increased to $110,000.
The structure is not LEED-certified.

Residential Improvement Exemption
– 5 Year –

You can now improve any residential property in the City of Syracuse and qualify for an exemption on City and School taxes on the increase in assessment.

Here’s how it works:
The improvement can be made to any residential property, or it can be new construction on a vacant lot.

If you build a new one- or two-family home, or plan to totally rehabilitate a vacant residence, please refer to other new City exemptions which may provide greater exemption benefits.

- The value of the construction must be at least $10,000
- You must obtain any required building permits
- Submit an application for the exemption by December 31st of the year in which the construction is started
- Ordinary maintenance and repairs do not qualify for this exemption

What is the exemption provided?
Properties that qualify will receive a 5 years of partial exemption from City and School taxes on the assessment increase due to the improvements.

Example:
A homeowner with an assessment of $75,000 adds a family room and garage.
The assessment is increased to $90,000.

What type of property is eligible?
Any residential improvement is eligible for the exemption, such as an addition, extensive renovation, garage, new construction, etc. If it is a new one- or two-family residence, or a complete rehabilitation of a vacant residence, other City exemptions may be more beneficial.

What taxes are reduced by the exemption?
City and School taxes due to the value added by the construction. County taxes are not reduced by it.

When should I apply?
You should complete and submit an application by December 31st of the year in which you start construction.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR APPLICATION FOR RESIDENTIAL INVESTMENT
REAL PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION
(Real Property Tax Law, Section 485-j)

1. Authorization for exemption
Section 485-j of the Real Property Tax Law authorizes the City of Syracuse to offer a partial exemption from real property taxation for improvements to residential property constructed subsequent to January 1, 2006 or a later date as specified in the City’s local law. The cost of construction of such improvement must exceed $10,000. Ordinary maintenance and repairs do not qualify for exemption.

2. Duration and computation of exemption
The amount of the exemption in the first year is 100% of the increase in the assessed value attributable to the construction. The exemption amount then decreases by 20% in each of the next four years.

3. Application for exemption
The exemption may apply to charges imposed upon real property by the City for both city and school district purposes. The exemption does not apply to costs incurred for ordinary maintenance and repairs.

4. Filing of exemption
Applications for exemption with original signature must be filed with the City assessor, not the State Board of Real Property Services.

5. Time of filing application
The application must be filed in the assessor’s office on or before the appropriate taxable status date and within one year from the date of completion of the improvements. In Syracuse, the taxable status date is January 1.

Once the exemption has been granted, the exemption may continue for the authorized period provided that the eligibility requirements continue to be satisfied. It is not necessary to reapply for the exemption after the initial year in order for the exemption to continue.

The City of Syracuse has a variety of new incentives to help you build new a home on vacant lots, or to rehab an existing vacant house. If you build on a vacant lot or renovate a vacant property, you will not have to pay city or school taxes on the new value of your investment, a savings that could be worth more than $7,000 over seven years or more.

Combined with the Say Yes to Education Program which offers the promise of a free college education to graduates of Syracuse City high schools, there has never been a more attractive time to own a home in the City of Syracuse.

Thank you for taking the time to pick up our brochure outlining these exciting programs. I invite you to contact our Assessment Department to start a conversation about how you can be part of the continuing revitalization of Syracuse.
